800th memorabilia and 800 Acts of Kindness: To purchase our 800th memorabilia or let us know (anonymously) your kind acts, order or fill in the slips at the back by the respective displays

Our next 800th event: Our Baptism (Christening) weekend – 15th to the 17th of September. Exhibition of christening gowns/ suits down the ages; displays on the history of baptisms and symbols connected with baptisms; the church's baptism registers from 1800 on display. There will be a special renewal of baptism promises service giving God thanks for our baptisms on Sunday the 17th at 10am. What we would be grateful to receive to go into the exhibition!!! Please note: these items do not have to come from a christening at All Saints Church, Paston – any church where a christening has taken place.

Christening gowns or christening suits that has been used for the baptism of you, your children, or others over the years. / Christening photographs. / Christening certificates or special candles given when the baptism took place. / Any christening gifts you were given when you or other family members were christened. / We also need life sized baby dolls (to carefully put the christening gowns on). (If you can lend them please contact Karen or Mark at the Rectory.)

Also in church are rotas to sign if you could help for two hours – stewarding or refreshments. If you can bring cakes for refreshments on the Friday or Saturday morning @10am – thank you!!!
